A collection of personal items is laid out on a dark wooden table. In the upper right, an open silver metal case contains a red card with a star emblem and the text "89e" and "ELECTRONICALLY GUARANTEED", a small black and white photo of a person, and a small gold-colored object. To the left of the case is a black plastic tray with several compartments holding various pieces of jewelry, including a large star-shaped pendant, a ring, and a watch with a gold-colored metal band. Below the tray are several small photographs, including a Polaroid of a person lying down and a small photo of a person in a white shirt.
